WHAT IN SUCCESS?

Is it to work earthly, groveling gold, And dollar-blinded, to look only down? To raise the muck-heap, and forget the crown, That the bounding blood creeps strangely cold; To barter all benevolence for dross, To lose companionship, nor feel its sting? That since the flower of sympathy is dead— Is that success?

To labor for the rainbow-bright, fame— A perfect jewel for a Prince to wear—is it a recompence for all its claim? That's to be sure, a hard, and crowded, strenuous day. Three iron reubut, or flattery-like words— That leaves one thirsty—it is grasped, and lo! It vanishes in nothingness away!

Is that success?

With comrade down, in the dark or day, To follow truth—wherever it may lead;

To be all meanness, cowardice or greed;

To look for beauty under common clay;

Our love, like a burdened sharing, when they weep.

But, if we fall, to bear defeat alone; To live for others that loved us, when we're gone, Beyond the twilight (till the morning break) to sleep? That is success!

JUDGE CANTRELL at Paris recently imposed some heavy and well-deserved sentences on several Negro crap-shooters. Will the Hon. "Craps" BREKUS pardon them?

If the reported plan to trade the new Kentucky Judgeship for the personal advantage of certain aspiring politicians is successful, it ought to eternally damn every man who has a hand in the scheme.

AFTER the Washington correspondents of the Louisville papers get through appointing ex-Congressman PUGH and ex-Governor BRADLEY to the new Federal Judgeship in Kentucky, Senator MCKINLEY will appoint AXDREW COCHRAN.

MR. CRAPS BECKHAM, filling the office to which the people of Kentucky elected WILLIAM S. TAYLOR, has utterly ignored the request of the Bar Association of Louisville for a conference in regard to the charge he preferred against the Prosecuting Attorney of Louisville. CRAPS appears to be the whole push.

WHACK it to 'em! Auditor COULTER in a few days will notify the life insurance companies doing business in Kentucky to submit reports for franchise taxation. The Auditor holds that these corporations are taxable on franchise valuations under the provisions of Section 4078 of the Statutes, though the former Auditor did not make any effort at collection. It is estimated that such assessment, made retroactive, as is contemplated, would yield about $100,000 to the State Treasury in addition to local taxation in the cities and counties where the companies are doing business. Whack it to 'em!

The appraisement of the estate of the late John H. Fitzgerald was $1,263,13.

J. V. Barbour, named in the will, qualified as Executor of the late John H. Hickman without bond.

William Poe has been appointed Road Overseer in the Murphysville District in place of Robert Poe, resigned.

Mr. L. M. Lane is improving the building of Mr. J. W. D. Second, recently purchased from Mr. George H. Traxel.

Edmund Morris will make room for spring stock. So buy now and get our reduced prices. Murray & Thomas, 108 West Second street.

The Council of the Diocese of Lexington will meet in St. John's Church, Versailles, on Tuesday, May 28th. The Church of the Nativity will elect delegates on the first Monday in May.

Charles Purche, alias Bush, was in Squire Grant's Court, charged with breaking into a C. & O. car at Dover. He was held in $200 to appear before the June Grand Jury; and his father came up from Newport and gave bond.

The will of the late John H. Hickman has been probated to-day. He authorizes the sale of all his property, and after the payment of any debts and the expenses of administration, the balance is left to his son, Mr. Sam T. Hickman.

The wedding of Mr. James Orridge of Cincinnati and Miss Emma Fisher of Norwood, O., is announced to take place at the home of the bride's father, Dr. W. H. Orridge, on Saturday, March 27. The groom is well known, and has many relatives in this city, being a son of Mrs. Rebecca Orridge and a brother of Mrs. Fred Hinchliffe of West Second street. He is a clothing salesman at the Big Store in Cincinnati, and is a very popular man.

Colonel Samuel R. Smith, who was a clerk in the office of Andrew Sweeney, Auditor of State, and a member of the publican officials were turned out of office in June, last year, filed a damages suit against Auditor Coulter Saturday to compel him to pay him $425 salary, due for work in the months of March, April, May and June, when the other offices were pending. The suit is brought in equity, and it is understood all of the clerks in this and other departments are to be made plaintiffs also.

ELECTION SUGGESTION.

Mr. Editor: As the fall election of city and county, is the main topic of street and home circle talk, the sovereign suffragists are, in consequence, having made an interesting state of affairs.

The county is Democratic at almost all times, and that is the reason why the Democrats always have a full ticket in the field.

The city of Maysville is always Republican, and that is why the Republicans should have a municipal ticket in the field.

The administration of municipal affairs is important, and as everybody realizes this and is anxious that no mistake be made in the selection of her official wife, why do the Republicans not nominate the man who is the majority of their voters who, by reason of that majority, have most at stake in her success or failure?

What say you, fellow-Republicans?

Short Talks On Advertising

By Charles Austin Bates.

More things enter into advertising than are generally supposed. In fact everything that connects a name and a business in people's minds is advertising.

Membership in churches and clubs, the giving of social entertainments, public charities—all these things and more are advertising. But greater and broader and better and easier than all these is newspaper advertising. You may think of that without thinking of the other plans, but no scheme of publicity is complete without it.

Properly prosecuted, newspaper advertising will always pay. That here and there is a man who says "advertising doesn't pay, I've tried it" proves nothing but that his method was faulty.

Advertising is business. It tells of things which are of great daily importance. It is of more account to the frugal housewife than to the millionaire, and when she can get certain commodities at a less cost than usual to her, she is bound to buy them.

The news should be news. It should not be allowed to grow stale with repetition in the same old way.

If you can advertise only in a small way, pick out the best paper in your territory and spend all of your advertising money in that. Don't scatter. When your advertising is scattered, it is scattered in space in the same paper until you are sure you are getting all won profitably.

Then and another paper. I would rather have one good "ad," than half a dozen poor ones. When "hunting for heat" I would rather take the best gun I had and load it properly than to scatter my powder in half a dozen poor guns, and so "make a hash in the pan."

Business, address and business will do good, but there is a limit to what you can get from the others in your line. Find some point in which you excel and harp on that. Give prices and specialties. Try to make the advertisements interesting and readable. Make them characteristic of your store, and in spirit.

Don't say that you haven't the time to attend to your advertising properly. Really, you haven't time to do anything else. Advertising is the most important thing about any business. It is the vital spark.

What good does it do to you to have the very best thing or the very greatest bargain on earth if people do not know it?

In running a newspaper James Gordon Bennett, Sr., said the important thing was to "tell the news and then make a dam fuss about it."

First, get the right sort of goods in the right location at the right prices, and then "make a dam fuss about it" in the best paper you can find. The trade will follow.

Who Are They?

Maysville and Mason county have been the birthplace and home of many distinguished men.

THE LEDGER respectfully invites its readers to furnish a list of twelve names of persons—dead or living—who, in their judgment, have contributed most to the welfare of Mason county and the city of Maysville, commercially and intellectually.

The names, with that of the contributor, will be published in the order in which they are received.

NO HUMBUG HERE.

Maysville Indorsement is What Counts with the Maysville Public.

You can't fool the public all the time. They will find you out at last.

Every time a man is fooled.

Another skeptic is made.

Many the remedy that makes the skeptic.

Because it fails to keep its promise.

Doan's Kidney Pills bring renewed reward—

And the best the skeptic.

Plenty of proof of this at home.

Maysville proof for Maysville people.

Here's a case of it:

Mrs. J. A. Thomas of 311 East Second street says:

"The result of my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills was most gratifying and their use brought speedy relief to hiccups, which had been a source of much discomfort to me for some time.

It is a pleasure to endorse a remedy of such proven value. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets."

A CONFLAGRATION.

Two Blocks of Valuable Property in St. Louis Destroyed by the Flames.

STARTED FROM AN ENGINE'S SPARK.

The Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co. and the American Car & Foundry Co. the Heaviest Losers.

The Total Loss is Estimated at About $100,000, the Greater Part of Which is Covered by Insurance.

St. Louis, March 19.—Five Monday destroyed the ice storage plant of the Anheuser-Busch Distilling Co., the repair shop of the American Car & Foundry Co., together with a number of box cars, the factory of Stale & Co., pickle manufacturers, a five-story house, and a number of small sheds.

The total loss is estimated at $100,000, the greater part of which is covered by insurance. Two men, employees of the American Car & Foundry Co., were injured, but not seriously. The burned district embraced two square blocks bounded by Zephi, Utah, First and Kosciusko streets.

The fire was started in an Anheuser-Busch ice house, all of which are connected. A spark from a passing switch engine is credited with having ignited straw in the loft.

A SPARK WENT BLOWN.

While the fire was in progress a stiff southeast wind blew across the river from the Illinois side, fanning the flames and making the work of the firemen all the more difficult.

Fires of lumber sometimes in the stores, houses, quickly ignited, causing a heat which was intense. Several valuable buildings, which escaped damage, were seriously threatened.

By far the greater danger attached to buildings more remote from the scenes of the conflagration, taking place, in which blood was shed, the French carrying side arms.

Three French soldiers attacked Capit. Bogier, British army, and pull him from the rickshaw. The of French, in a panic, surrounded the general call to arms and all the British troops were turned out. They drove the French out. Pickets were set around the entire settlement with strict orders to admit no French soldiers.

CONFLICT EXPECTED.

The Russians Refuse to Compromise and a Fight with the British Expected.

London, March 19.—The Times Tuesday morning makes the following announcement: "We learn that Count Von Walderses has interfered in a conflict between the allied forces in China to put an end to the mutually hostile attitude of the British and Russian troops at Tien-Tsin."

There is no confirmation of this statement in other quarters, but it has an air of extreme probability and will be received by England with feelings of concern and apprehension. May not an editorial which frankly faces a disagreeable situation, say: "We must admit that this is no juncture to risk fresh quarrels. Our armaments are inefficient, and our fleet is far east is so weak that its position would be perilous."

A painted program for the nation to follow is far stamp, but until the country compels the government to put our house in order it is a humiliation to which we must accustom ourselves."

A Conflict is Expected.

Tien-Tsin, March 19.—The Russian Gen. Wogack has declined a compromise suggested by Count Von Walderses, the general's lifelong friend and counsellor, in whose hands the instrument was placed soon after its execution in 1895, just before the decedent left for Paris to make his argument in the British-Venezuelan case.

The meeting was due to the request of Mr. Miller, who, it is to be presumed, was acting upon a wish of his dead friend, expressed at the time he made his old law partner the custodian of the instrument, the significance of which was to be of such a large moment to Gen. Harrison's case.

The latest news is that Gen. Fourie, with 800 men, escaped Sunday from the British columns that were endeavoring to corner the commandos east of Bloemfontein. Further big operations will be started in Orange River Colony within a few days.

British troops are seemingly aiding the Russians, despite the efforts of their officers to maintain neutrality. Many groups of French troops ran through the British settlement in the afternoon shouting "Down with the English." Fighting was frequent, and several soldiers taking sides, of which blood was shed, the French carrying side arms.

A GENEROUS ACT.

Worthy Southern Lady Will Provide Money for 50 Couples of New York's Poor.

New York, March 19.—The provisions of the will or the provisions of the distribution of the estate that Gen. Harrison had made ample and very liberal provision for Mrs. Harrison and their little daughter, and that there could be no reasonable ground, from any direction for future dispute of the will in its terms, is known.

It is known that Gen. Harrison in his life time was a careful and painstaking investor of his accumu lations of wealth acquired in the practice of his profession, and that his investments have been such, at most, invariably, through many years not to insure profitable and con tinuous returns, that when the couple will be given a home and will be provided for them which will be largely of valuable stocks, with a small amount of capital invested in it.

When Superintendent Blair heard of this proposal he immediately went to work and is now ready to receive applications at his office.

GEN. HARRISON'S WILL.

The Document Opened and Read in the Presence of the Queen—The Contests Not Made Public.

Indianapolis, March 19.—In the presence of the members of Gen. Benjamin Harrison's family Monday afternoon, gathered in the parlor from whence his remains were conveyed last Sunday to his old church and the last resting place at Crown Hill cemetery, his last will and testament was opened and read by H. Miller, the general's lifelong friend and counsellor, in whose hands the instrument was placed soon after its execution in 1895, just before the decedent left for Paris to make his argument in the British-Venezuelan case.

The meeting was due to the request of Mr. Miller, who, it is to be presumed, was acting upon a wish of his dead friend, expressed at the time he made his old law partner the custodian of the instrument, the significance of which was to be of such a large moment to Gen. Harrison's case.
